

The CVHEC Way to AB 1705 Success

January 26, 2024
9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Agenda

- 9:00 a.m. Welcome and Brief Introductions by College
- 9:15 a.m. Review of what the CVHEC Math Task Force has done since March 2023
- March 29 - Math Task Force, which began in 2017 & dissipated during COVID, revived
 - April 19 - Continued discussion, focusing on the need to focus on AB 1705
 - October 6 - Zoom meeting with Chancellor's Office Erik Cooper focusing on AB 1705
 - October 13 - In-person Fresno meeting—moving toward AB 1705 Central Valley Way
 - November 17 - Two Zooms in one day—Follow up to Oct. 13
 - Five AB 1705 sub-committees created
- 9:30 a.m. Report out from Sub-committee from Point Person (or designee)
- Validating prerequisites--quantitative and qualitative--Nathan Cahoon, Taft
 - Designing Precalculus for 2025--Jeremy Brandl, FCC
 - Math support outside the classroom--Shelley Getty, Taft
 - Building an AB 1705 campus team--Marie Bruley, Merced
 - Guided self-placement--Jay Thomas, West Hills Lemoore
- 10:45 a.m. Sub-Committee Huddles: Everyone Joins one of the Five sub-committees
- Feedback
 - New Ideas
 - Timeline
 - Next steps
- 11:15 a.m. Sub-committee Report Outs
- 11:45 a.m. Lunch

12:30 p.m. College Team Discussions: Discuss Preliminary College Plans

- Validating prerequisites between now and July 1, 2024
- Developing new/revised curriculum to take effect July 1, 2025
 - Coreq Support Course
- Math support inside and outside the classroom
- Utilizing a campus AB1705 team
- Guided self-placement

1:15 p.m. College Teams Report Outs (no more than five minutes)

2:00 p.m. Where do we go From Here?

- Role of Sub-committee
- Role of College
- Role of CVHEC
 - Partnership Colleges

2:45 p.m. Setting the Date for Next Meeting

- Spring
 - April 2024?
 - Anticipated outcomes
- Fall Meeting: “Showcasing the Central Valley Response to AB1705”
 - October 2024?

3:00 p.m. Adjourn